Omaha Celebrates Last Play at Denver by Taking Beating.

EDINGTON'S HOMER DECIDES IT

Game Well in Hand on Different Occasions, but Lack of Staying Power Against Gate City Club.

DENVER, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—A stalling home run by Edington smashed Omaha's hopes of today's game in the sixth inning and the Bears made it three out of four, taking the final game of the season with the Rockies, 6 to 5. The battle was spirited throughout and Edington came through it looking like a Colt.

Metter opened for the Cubs and lasted only one-third of an inning against his old teammates. In that space of time Payne and Krug singled, Bell forced the latter at second and Thomason came across with a hit, which, coupled with Barbour's boot, scored Payne. Krueger tripled and Bell and Thomason scored. Then Schreiber appeared. Krueger was out at the plate, Matthews to block, and the Rockies were stopped. Clean hitting ended the Bears one in the first and in the last of the third they drove Garrett from the mound, scoring two runs.

In the first half of the period, however, Bell's single, Thomason's fielding out and a boot by Fisher had netted the visitors a run and they still had the lead, 4 to 3, when the sixth came around.

After Edington's homer, Coffey scored in the seventh on a single, a fielding out and Block's hit. With two down in the eighth, Thomas walked and Schreiber tripled, putting the club within one of making even. Seabough skied to Matthews, however, and in the ninth it was one, two, three.

In the final frame Boettick, a University of Denver player, made his debut with the Rockies and struck out. He was not taken on the trip. Matthews, who was drafted two years ago, then released to the Central for seasoning, was back on second for the home club today. The box score shows what he did. Score:
